

Man without an back

You try to make us believe that „it`s alright!“,
we don`t need anything to do, `cause „time will tell!“,
no clean decision and no open face,
you don`t know where to go!

Tell me what it is to be the sunlight in your small universe!
Is it to hide down in your cave and to hide from every fight?
Come on get out, come get clean and be a man with back!

You`re anxiously crawling down your way to decide
a few things man that you don`t like.
That don`t feels alive but it feels so dead,
oh you can`t change a bit!

Tell me what it is to be the sunlight in your small universe!
Is it to hide down in your cave or to hide from every fight?
Come on get out, come get clean and be a man with back!

(But) when your worries are gone and the lights`re down low,
you see that you made a few mistakes
when your worries are gone and the lights`re down low,
you have to proove that you stay another day!
