

Muse

Bring me some water, my brain is getting much to dry
It`s fevering out and i think it`s going to explode
I`m walking in a room where the windows closed an the door really can`t be found
I`m walking in a room where the windows closed and the circle is getting much to small

Suddenly you`re outta control, when the muse is kissing you Suddenly you`re outta your hole, when the muse is kissing you Suddenly you break free, when the muse is kissing you
And suddenly you see, when the muse is kissing you

Get me some whiskey, innovation has just running out
I`m looking for the big words, Lord i`m trying all the time I`m swimming in the sea where the ships go dawn and the land really
can`t be found
I`m swimming in the sea where the ships go dawn and the water`s getting much to high

Suddenly ...

Gimme the wings, gimme the wings, gimme the wings to break out here
Gimme the wings, gimme the wings, gimme the wings to overtake my fear Gimme the power, gimme the power, gimme the power to rule my brain

One fine day the muse is opening the door for you
And she will show you the light
The muse is here the muse is there can really find her everywhere
Don`t try to catch don`t try to hide cause she`s doing what she likes

Suddenly ...

And when you reached the goal that you where looking for Then you`ll begin to ignore
That she`s the one who gave you all that she`s the one who broke your fall
You can`t create you can`t build up when she is`nt on your way
