

When the wind cried Mary

I want you to know, who I am
I want you to believe in who I am
Who I am

When the wind cried „Mary, leave him now
Destroy your love for Life!“

I wanted to cry, but you refused
I wanted to tell you, who I am
Who I am
When the wind cried „Mary, leave him now
Destroy your love for Life!“

R She had to believe
When the wind cried Mary
She`s burning her heart
With the wrong kind of fire
She`s giving a lot
But he`s her golden shot
She`s giving a lot
But he`s the knife that cuts
Her Life

I still want to love, I hope you, too
I want you to show me, who you really are
Who you are

„Pain has run outta control
Pain, I`ve gotto watch out for the sun
You`re pushing till you`ve got
What you are meaning to deserve
You`re splitting up our love
When you don`t talk, you don`t talk“
